

Descendants of William Auldrige and Mary Cochran of Bath County, Virginia, and Pocahontas County, Virginia/West Virginia

This genealogy is an evolving work based on the best information I have at this time. It is necessarily incomplete. Although I haven't posted my source notes, they are available on request. In some cases, the source is secondary and may be of doubtful reliability. If you have any questions, please ask. I welcome corrections and additions.

To avoid posting sensitive information about people who are still living, I have included only the first five generations of this family. Family researchers who wish to have information on later generations or on my sources may e-mail me: \_evely@lava.net.

Short

AULDRIDGE FAMILY HISTORY

The grandfather of the Auldridge clan, whose name we do not know, was born in England and died there. He had his wife, Elizabeth Tillman Auldrige, an educated lady, had one son, William Tillman Auldrige. After her husband's death, Elizabeth and her son, ten or twelve years old, came under the indentured servant status to America. The Auldrige name has been spelled different ways: Aldridge, Oldridge.

John Johnston needed a governess to take care of his children and he paid the passage of Elizabeth and William to America. Later John and Elizabeth were married, they had no children. Elizabeth is thought to be buried in Duffield Cem. on Jerico Road, but she is also thought to be buried under a tree on Jerico Road, at any rate, her marker is in someone's woodshed on Jerico Road! Tradition has it that before Elizabeth left England, she worked in the Queen's court, Elizabeth fell in love with Mr. Auldrige and married. Because she married below her social status she was kicked out. After her husband died the only thing left to do was come to America.

In "History of Pocahontas Co. 1981" page 215, the article on the Auldrige family states "William T. Auldrige was born about 1750, and later received a land grant in 1765". This can't be true, because in the 1850 census of Pocahontas County, William Auldrige gave his age as 79 and Mary Auldrige gave her age as 77. This would make William being born about 1771. I found where in 1790 William Auldrige received a land grant for four hundred acres on what is known as Auldrige Mountain, between Mill Point and Buckeye, West Virginia.

William T. Auldrige married 24 Dec. 1794 to Mary Cochran, minister George Guthrie. Mary was born about 1785, died 22 March 1856, daughter of Thomas Cochran, Sr. and Sarah _____. Her death is recorded at the Pocahontas County Court House, and it mentions her mother as Sarah. William and Mary lived at Bridger's Notch, near where James and John Bridger were bushwhacked by Indians in 1784. See Cochran family history.

Early in William's life he was greatly disabled by a falling tree and was seriously crippled for life; and yet the work he and his children accomplished in opening up new roads, under difficulties, is truly remarkable and worthy of special appreciation. Owing to Mr. Auldrige's disabled condition, he became a school teacher, and pursued that vocation for years, and did much good in that line.

William and Mary had nine children:

1. Sarah Auldrige - Married to William McClure, they had four children
2. Elizabeth Auldrige - Married Jacob McNeil and settled in Floyd, Va
3. James Auldrige - was a tailor and migrated to Missouri
4. Richard Auldrige - Married 28 Jan. 1836 to Hannah Smith they moved to Braxton County, WV. Richard was killed in Civil War.
5. John Auldrige - born 1809. Married 9 Aug. 1832 to Rebecca Smith, born 1819, she died in 1899, over 90 years of age.
6. William Auldrige, Jr. - born 1807 on Bridgers Mountain, died 10 Sept. 1891, age 84 of dropsy.
Married twice:
#1 - 14 Jan. 1836 to Nancy Kellison, daughter of Daniel Kellison
#2 -
7. Nancy Auldrige - Married 3 Dec. 1835 to Moore McNeil, his second marriage. (His first marriage was 5 Jan. 1832 to Martha McNair of Augusta Co. Virginia).
8. Samuel Auldrige - settled at Bridgers Notch and later on Greenbrier River near Stampin Creek finally on Auldrige Mtn.
Married twice:
#1 - 4 Sept. 1834 to Marion Barlow, daughter of John Barlow and Martha Vaddell Barlow
- **9. THOMAS AULDRIDGE, Sr. - born 1795, died 29 Oct. 1874, at Edray, age 79 years, 2 months, and 24 days.

Married 14 Feb. 1822 to ELIZABETH MORRISON born 1798 in the Hill Country (Lobelia). Died 5 July 1876 at Edray. Their deaths are recorded at the court house in Pocahontas. Their death is listed as dropsy. ELIZABETH'S parents were James Morrison and Elizabeth Jane Callison. See Morrison and Callison family history.
I believe where Thomas and Elizabeth lived is located across from Zack Johnson's home. There was a log house located across the road that was removed and put back up in Green Bank.
In "Historical Sketches" by Price, page 368, 369 it mentions THOMAS AULDRIDGE leased land that was later owned by John R. Poage near Clover Lick, where Thomas spent most of his working days. He then later bought land from Jacob Arbaugh and Captain William Young, near Indian Draft, the land was later owned by his son Thomas, Jr.

When Thomas, Sr. was in his prime, he was considered one of the strongest men physically in Vest Pocahontas County. The first revelation of his strength was at a log rolling. The champion of the day attempted to take young Auldrige's handspike--which was a fancy article of its kind. The young athlete picked up both the champion and the disputed handspike and laid them on the log heap, with apparent ease! Thomas and Elizabeth had three sons and three daughters, it is interesting to note that three of their children married three of Aaron Moore's children, #1, 3, and 6.

1. Sarah Auldridge - born 1825. Married 21 June 1855, second wife of
2. James Auldridge - born 1828, died 28 Oct. 1899, age 74 years, 6 months, 1 day, buried Indian Draft Cem.
Married twice:
#1 - 13 Sept. 1853 to Mary Ann Earlow (buried in Cochran Cem.???)
#2 - 28 Oct. 1866 to Julia A. Duncan
3. William Auldridge - born 1829, died 19 Sept. 1891,
Married 1 Jan. 1850 to Elizabeth Moore, daughter of Aaron Moore and Catherine Johnson
4. Mary Ann Auldridge - born 1832. Married 24 April 1862 to William Moore, born 1815 son of Aaron Moore and Catherine Johnson
5. Elizabeth Auldridge born Dec. 1833, died 1908, Married 31 Jan. 1850 to Henry Moore son of Aaron Moore and Catherine Johnson. Elizabeth and Henry had only one son, Andrew Thomas Moore. see Moore family history
6. Thomas Auldridge, Jr. - born 20 Mar. 1835, died 19 May 1912.
Married 5 July 1859 to Catherine Moore, born 4 Mar. 1837, died 10 Oct. 1920, daughter of John and Jane Moore.

 Country (Lobelia). Died 5 July 1876 at Edray. Their deaths are recorded at the court house in Pocahontas. Their death is listed as dropsy. Elizabeth's parents were James Morrison and Elizabeth Jane Callison. See Morrison and Callison family history, ~~1876~~ believe where Thomas and Elizabeth lived is located across from Zack Johnson's home. There was a log house located across the road that was removed and put back up in Green Dank.
 In "Historical Sketches" by Price, page 368, 369 it mentions Thomas Auldridge leased land that was later owned by John R. Poage near Clover Lick, where Thomas spent most of his working days. He then later bought land from Jacob Arbaugh and Captain William Young, near Indian Draft, the land was later owned by his son Thomas, Jr

When Thomas, Sr. was in his prime, he was considered one of the strongest men physically in West Pochontas County. The first revelation of his strength was at a log rolling. The champion of the day attempted to take young Auldridge's handspike--which was a fancy article of its kind. The young athlete picked up both the champion and the disputed handspike and laid them on the log heap, with apparent ease!! Thomas and Elizabeth had three sons and three daughters, it is interesting to note that three of their children married three of Aaron Moore's children, #1, 3, and 6.

1. Sarah Auldridge - born 1825, Married 21 June 1855, second wife of James Harvey Curry, son of James and Jane Curry

DIED

Robert Moore Barlow, son of A. A. and Eliza Moore Barlow, was born August 18, 1907, and died Oct. 21, 1931. His illness extended over a period of several months. On Friday afternoon his body was buried in the family plot at the Edray Cemetery. The funeral was conducted from the Edray church by Rev. D. E. Carter, assisted by Rev. C. N. Miles. The pall bearers were H. A. Apple, H. H. Yeager, William McVitt, Lee Rockman, D. R. Hannah, H. C. Brees. The flower girls were Jean Sharp, Marie Herold, Janet Heber, Virginia Gay, Emerson Barlow, Zell Pudge. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful. There was a great outpouring of sympathetic friends.

Robert is survived by his parents, one sister, Mrs. Henry Hill, of Cass, three brothers, Sam, Ed, of Danmore, Guy and Lynn, at home. One sister, Hazel Ann, preceded him to the grave some years ago.

Robert was a young man of unusual ability and promise. He graduated from Edray District High School, and attended West Virginia Wesleyan and Concord College.

He was a member of the Delta Delta Delta Tau fraternity at Concord. Since school he had been in business with his father and engaged in different enterprises. At the time his health broke down he was connected with the Pennsylvania County Relief Administration. He was ever ready to do his part, whatever called upon him.

His outstanding personality and good nature made him a host of friends wherever he went. His untimely death is universally deplored.

"To live in the heart we leave behind," is not to die.

WESLEY BARLOW, DEAD.

Wesley Barlow dropped dead Saturday morning, June 19, 1931, while attempting the sale of his estate of his brother, the late J. B. Barlow. He had been in his usual health, and was speaking to a friend when he fell off his feet. To be precise of time, his death was due to heart failure. His body was buried at the Cochran cemetery on Stony Creek, the services being conducted from West Union Church by his pastor, Rev. M. H. Barlow, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which Mr. Barlow had been a life long member.

Wesley Barlow was a son of the late Alex. and Polly Miller Barlow. Of his father's family three brothers and two sisters remain. Andrew, of Beverly; Mitchell, of Webster county; and Henry, of Conover. Mrs. W. W. Sharp, of Nashville, and Mrs. Susan Bender, of Webster County. May 1878, he married Margaret M., daughter of the late George M. and Catherine Mountain, who officiated daughter, Mrs. J. A. Hines, and with him.

At the outbreak of the Civil War, Mr. Barlow was a Union sympathizer and volunteered in the Federal army. He served throughout the war and made a fine record as a soldier.

Mr. Barlow was a quiet, peaceful citizen, respected by all for his honesty and industry.

Mrs. Margaret Moore Barlow, Mrs. Margaret Moore Barlow, aged 86 years, died at her home near Woodrow on Friday, December 21, 1940, of the infirmities of age.

On Sunday afternoon her body was laid to rest in the Cochran cemetery on Stony Creek, the service being conducted from West Union Church by her pastor, Rev. E. H. Sharpe.

Mrs. Barlow was a daughter of the late Samuel and Nancy Best Moore of Martin Mountain. Of her father's family of four sons and seven daughters there now remains one, Lin Annie McLaughlin of Browns Creek.

The deceased was the widow of the late Wesley Barlow. They are survived by their daughter, Mrs. Ollie Barlow.

Mrs. Ruth Barlow, wife of J. B. Barlow, widow of the late James M. Barlow, died at the home of J. C. White at Birmingham, Sparta, Sunday, January 1, 1930. Mrs. Barlow was 84 years old. She had been ill for several years. Burial in the family grave yard at Woodrow on Tuesday. The services were conducted from the home of her pastor, Rev. M. H. Barlow.

She was a daughter of the late Hattie Barlow, who later was Mrs. J. E. Fack of Thompson. Her brothers are Andrew and Alex. Barlow, of Conover; L. B. Barlow, of Huntington; and Dr. Paul Barlow, of Wheeling. She became the wife of James N. White, who preceded her ten years since. Their children are Rev. Jace and Abner White and Mrs. Ardine Gatch.

Pocahontas Times, 23 Jan 1890:

IN MEMORY

Mr. Alexander Barlow departed this life at his home near Edray, W.Va., at 12 o'clock, on the night of the 13th of January, 1890, at the good old age of 82 years, 1 month and 1 day, being born Dec. 12th, 1807. He died of old age and general decline, the active cause of death being an attack of La Grippe, which was too hard for his failing strength.

In some respects he was a remarkable man, and especially in a religious point of view. For a great number of years he was a faithful and conscientious member of the M. E. Church, and always without exception, exhibited the most humble and unassuming christian character; and not only did he show by action and profession that he loved the Lord, but he was often wonderfully blessed with the Divine Presence, and his demonstrations of delight on such occasions proved their Divine character by the effect produced on others. His public prayers were made in the most simple and plain language, but were often wonderful in their effect. Eternity alone can disclose the result of the influence of his religious character, both among his friends and all his acquaintances. His prayers always seemed to be language of a child to a kind father, full of faith and confidence. He has gone to his home in the Heavens. His kindred know where to look for him. Peace to his ashes.

BARLOW FAMILY HISTORY

There were Barlow's of Slubetch created 13 July 1677 and extinct before the year 1775. This ancient family enjoyed equestrian ranks for many generations prior to its being raised to the baronetcy. They were from County of Lancaster, County Hereford and County of Pembroke. Therefore it is mentioned at the end of the lineage of a Sir George Barlow who went to France, without any children, and the administration of his effects was in 1774 or 1775.

The Barlow coat of arms found in Rielstop Armorial General, states that the surname Barlow appears to be locational in origin, and is believed to be associated with the English, meaning, "one who came from Barlow near Manchester." Various spelling variations of Barlow are: Barlowe, Barlowe and perhaps Barley. (The previous article was copied from Barlow Family History by Naden, that was in Richard Barlow's possession).

Among the worthy pioneers of our county, John Barlow, ancestor of the Barlow Connection, is very deserving of remembrance. He was the only son of Alexander Barlow, of Bath County, who was a French emigrant, and had married no English emigrant, who name was Barbary (Barbero), some think that her name could be Rousch and a sister to Alexander Voddell's wife. Alexander Barlow was living in Bath County when the Revolutionary War came on. Entering the service of the colonies he fell in battle, according to authentic tradition.

This soldier's widow married Henry Casebolt and lived at the Auldridge Place on the mountain over looking Buckeye. They had children of their own. See Casebolt family history.

John Barlow was born 28 Nov. 1781, died 23 Jan. 1866, almost 85 years old. When he reached manhood, he found employment very readily for he was honest and industrious. There will always be a pinco for such as long as there remains work to be done. Alexander Vaddell, who lived on the Moore place near Marvin, had employed John Barlow. Young Barlow and one of the daughters became attached, and were married 18 Dec. 1804, married by John Pinnell. The engagement occurred while Martha Voddell and John Barlow were getting in a supply of fire wood. It is not often that wood is chopped and hauled under such pleasingly romantic circumstances. At the time of the marriage the groom was 25 and the bride was 10.

Martha Vaddell was born 12 Jan. 1790, died 7 Oct. 1872, age 82 years.

John and Martha Barlow began house keeping at the "Briar Patch," on Buckley Mountain, known as the Pyles Property. A point that commands a very extensive view. Afterwards Mr. Barlow bought a piece of land from Thomas Brock, on Red Lick Mountain. Here he built up a home, reared a family, and spent the greater part of his married life.

July 1838 John Barlow located 35 acres of land in the forks of Stony Creek including the land that was left out of a survey he made in 1815. And is bounded by the same lines John Moore and the platd line which shuld off the same by virtue of part of a warrant for 2,000 acres.

The Barlow home on the Red Lick Mountain was constructed of hand hewn logs and stood two stories high. It is said that as the family grew and was necessary that John build a second identical home and they were connected by a dog trot (today's breezn-way). The home was situated about half way up the mountain and today the site can be reached only by travelling on foot or four wheel drive. No doubt at the time John and Martha lived there, a path led down the mountain.

It is worthy of mention that when John Barlow bought the Brock land he paid for it in venison at fifty cents a saddle or pair. Mr. Barlow estimated the number of deer killed by him at fifteen hundred. On the most lucky day of all his hunting career he killed six deer and wounded the seventh. He never kept count of the bears, panthers, wildcats, turkeys, and foxes shot by himself. The elk and buffalo were virtually exterminated before his hunting days.

John Barlow was one of the original members of the Hamlin Chapel. The construction of the church was done by the members of the church. John Barlow and John Auldridge hewed all the logs and notched and fitted the corners at the time the building was raised.

During his last days, while kept at home and out of the woods by the infirmities of age, our old friend was asked if he would like to live his life over again. He replied: "I have no wish to live my life over again, but there is one thing I would like to do, and that is to have one more good bear hunt on Red Lick Mountain."

CASEBOLT FAMILY HISTORY

Barbara or Barbary Barlow, wife of the late Alexander Barlow married Henry Casebolt. Below are their children as found in the Pocahontas County Court House. In the Annals of Bath County, Virginia, bt Oren F. Morton, page 121, we find Henry Casebolt was head of family in 1791, living in Second District of Bath County.

Barbara and Alexander Barlow had only one son, John Barlow. See Barlow family history for his family. Barbara married Henry Casebolt sometime between 1781 and 1790. They lived in a mountain home overlooking Buckeye. Henry and Barbara's children:

1. Anna Casebolt - Married 1 Sept. 1824 to Daniel Friel

BARLOW FAMILY HISTORY

There were Barlow's of Slubatch created 13 July 1677 and extinct before the year 1775. This ancient family enjoyed equestrian ranks for many generations prior to its being raised to the baronety. They were from County of Lancaster, County Herford and County of Penbroke. Therefore it is mentioned at the end of the lineage of a Sir George Barlow who went to France, without any children, and the administration of his effects was in 1774 or 1775.

The Barlow coat of arms found in Rielstap Armorial General, states that the surname Barlow appears to be locational in origin, and is believed to be associated with the English, meaning, "one who came from Barlow near Manchester." Various spelling variations of Barlow are: Barlowe, Barlewe and perhaps Barley. (The previous article was copied from Barlow Family History by Nada, that was in Richard Barlow's possession)

Among the worthy pioneers of our county, John Barlow, ancestor of the Barlow Connection, is very deserving of remembrance. He was the only son of Alexander Barlow, of Bath County, who was a French emigrant, and had married an English emigrant, whose name was Barbary (Barbara), some think that her name could be Rausch and a sister to Alexander Waddell's wife. Alexander Barlow was living in Bath County when the Revolutionary War came on. Entering the service of the colonies he fell in battle, according to authentic tradition.

This soldier's widow married Henry Casebolt and lived at the Auldridge Place on the mountain over looking Buckeye. They had children of their own. See Casebolt family history

John Barlow was born 26 Nov. 1781, died 23 Jan. 1866, almost 85 years old. When he reached manhood, he found employment very readily for he was honest and industrious. There will always be a place for such as long as there remains work to be done. Alexander Waddell, who lived on the Moore place near Marvin, had employed John Barlow. Young Barlow and one of the daughters became attached, and were married 18 Dec. 1804, married by John Pinnell. The engagement occurred while Martha Waddell and John Barlow were getting in a supply of fire wood. It is not often that wood is chopped and hauled under such pleasingly romantic circumstances. At the time of the marriage the groom was 25 and the bride was 16.

Martha Waddell was born 12 Jan. 1790, died 7 Oct. 1872, age 82 years.

John and Martha Barlow began house keeping at the "Briar Patch," on Buckley Mountain, known as the Pyles Property. A point that commands a very extensive view. Afterwards Mr. Barlow bought a piece of land from Thomas Brock, on Red Lick Mountain. Here he built up a home, reared a family, and spent the greater part of his married life.

July 1838 John Barlow located 35 acres of land in the forks of Stony Creek including the land that was left out of a survey he made in 1815. And is bounded by the same lines Johnny Moore and the plated line which shuld off the same by virtue of part of a warrant for 2,000 acres.

The Barlow home on the Red Lick Mountain was constructed of hand hewn logs and stood two stories high. It is said that as the family grew and was necessary that John build a second identical home and they were connected by a dog trot (today's breeze-way) The home was situated about half way up the mountain and today the site can be reached only by traveling on foot or four wheel drive. No doubt at the time John and Martha lived there, a path led down the mountain.

It is worthy of mention that when John Barlow bought the Brock land he paid for it in venison at fifty cents a saddle or pair. Mr. Barlow estimated the number of deer killed by him at fifteen hundred. On the most lucky day of all his hunting career he killed six deer and wounded the seventy. He never kept count of the bears, panthers, wildcats, turkeys, and foxes shot by himself. The elk and buffalo were virtually exterminated before his hunting days.

John Barlow was one of the original members of the Hamlin Chapel. The construction of the church was done by the members of the church. John Barlow and John Auldridge hewed all the logs and notched and fitted the corners at the time the building was raised.

During his last days, while kept at home and out of the woods by the infirmities of age, our old friend was asked if he would like to live his life over again. He replied: "I have no wish to live my life over again, but there is one thing I would like to do, and that is to have one more good bear hunt on Red Lick Mountain."

BARLOW FAMILY HISTORY

There were Barlow's of Slubetch created 13 July 1677 and extinct before the year 1775. This ancient family enjoyed equestrian ranks for many generations prior to its being raised to the baronety. They were from County of Lancaster, County Herford and County of Penbroke. Therefore it is mentioned at the end of the lineage of a Sir George Barlow who went to France, without any children, and the administration of his effects was in 1774 or 1775.

The Barlow coat of arms found in Rielstap Armorial General, states that the surname Barlow appears to be locational in origin, and is believed to be associated with the English, meaning, "one who came from Barlow near Manchester." Various spelling variations of Barlow are: Barlowe, Barlewa and perhaps Barley. (The previous article was copied from Barlow Family History by Nada, that was in Richard Barlow's possession).

Among the worthy pioneers of our county, John Barlow, ancestor of the Barlow Connection, is very deserving of remembrance. He was the only son of Alexander Barlow, of Bath County, who was a French emigrant, and had married an English emigrant, who name was Barbary (Barbara), some think that her name could be Rausch and a sister to Alexander Waddell's wife. Alexander Barlow was living in Bath County when the Revolutionary War came on. Entering the service of the colonies he fell in battle, according to authentic tradition.

This soldier's widow married Henry Casebolt and lived at the Auldrige Place on the mountain over looking Buckeye. They had children of their own. See Casebolt family history.

John Barlow was born 26 Nov. 1781, died 23 Jan. 1866, almost 85 years old. When he reached manhood, he found employment very readily for he was honest and industrious. There will always be a place for such as long as there remains work to be done. Alexander Waddell, who lived on the Moore place near Marvin, had employed John Barlow. Young Barlow and one of the daughters became attached, and were married 18 Dec. 1804, married by John Pinnell. The engagement occurred while Martha Waddell and John Barlow were getting in a supply of fire wood. It is not often that wood is chopped and hauled under such pleasingly romantic circumstances. At the time of the marriage the groom was 25 and the bride was 16.

Martha Waddell was born 12 Jan. 1790, died 7 Oct. 1872, age 82 years.

John and Martha Barlow began house keeping at the "Briar Patch," on Buckley Mountain, known as the Pyles Property. A point that commands a very extensive view. Afterwards Mr. Barlow bought a piece of land from Thomas Brock, on Red Lick Mountain. Here he built up a home, reared a family, and spent the greater part of his married life.

July 1838 John Barlow located 35 acres of land in the forks of Stony Creek including the land that was left out of a survey he made in 1815. And is bounded by the same lines Johnny Moore and the platted line which shuld off the same by virtue of part of a warrant for 2,000 acres

The Barlow home on the Red Lick Mountain was constructed of hand hevn logs and stood two stories high. It is said that as the family grew and was necessary that John build a second identical home and they were connected by a dog trot (today's breeze-way). The home was situated about half way up the mountain and today the site can be reached only by traveling on foot or four wheel drive. No doubt at the time John and Martha lived there, a path led down the mountain.

It is worthy of mention that when John Barlow bought the Brock land he paid for it in venison at fifty cents a saddle or pair. Mr. Barlow estimated the number of deer killed by him at fifteen hundred. On the most lucky day of all his hunting career he killed six deer and wounded the seventy. He never kept count of the bears, panthers, wildcats, turkeys, and foxes shot by himself. The elk and buffalo were virtually exterminated before his hunting days.

John Barlow was one of the original members of the Hamlin Chapel. The construction of the church was done by the members of the church. John Barlow and John Auldridge hewed all the logs and notched and fitted the corners at the time the building was raised.

During his last days, while kept at home and out of the woods by the infirmities of age, our old friend was asked if he would like to live his life over again. He replied: "I have no wish to live my life over again, but there is one thing I would like to do, and that is to have one more good bear hunt on Red Lick Mountain "

BEALE FAMILY HISTORY

Thomas B. Beele claimed to have been a sailor in early life, and was one of the defenders of Baltimore, and saw the engagement immortalized by the "Star Spangled Banner." He came to Pocahontas County after the War of 1812.

Thomas married to 31 July 1823 Rebecca Gillespie. No other information as to Rebecca Gillespie's parents. James Gillespie did sign her marriage bond but I do not know if this was a brother or father.

Rebecca probably was born 1795-1798, died 1861-1870.
In the 1850 census her age was listed as 52.
Thomas probably was born 1776, died after 1850.
In the 1850 census his age was listed as 74.

Thomas and Rebecca would be our _____ great grandparents. No information as to where they lived. In Nancy Beale Moore's death record, it mentions that she was born at Liwood, WV.

Thomas and Rebecca's children:

1. Nancy Beale - married 10 Nov. 1845 to Samuel Moore. They would be our _____ great grandparents. They lived on the summit of Mariin's Mountain. Nancy and Samuel are buried in the McLaughlin Cem. on Hamilton Hill, across from Marvins Perry's home. Their daughter, Margaret married Wesley Berlow. See Moore and Berlow family history.
2. Mary Jane Beale - born 1829, married 21 Nov. 1852 to John Sheoon. They never showed up in the 1860 census.
3. Susan or Sarah Beale - married 23 Nov. 1846 to Joseph H. Lange. They both died between 1862-1870.
4. Rebecca Rachel Beale - born 1837, married 22 March 1866 to James A. Fossett. In 1870 Rebecca was living alone.
5. Thomas H. Beale - born 1835, didn't show up in 1860 census.
6. Samuel V. Beale - born 1839, didn't show up in 1860 census.
7. George C. Beale - born 1827, married Frances VanReenen, born in Holland.

BARNETT FAMILY HISTORY

Zechariah Barnett was born in 1799 in Lewis County, West Virginia. He settled in Stony Bottom. He married in 18 Oct. 1825 to Eleanor "Ellen" Brown, daughter of Josiah Brown and Jane Waddell. Zechariah and Ellen were our _____ great grandparents.

Zechariah Barnett's grave may be located in the Stony Bottom beside his grandson's grave, John Barnett, MD. There is a stone over 24 inches high, in the shape of a triangle with the point up, with ZB carved on it. No location of Ellen's grave was found. Their names were listed in the 1880 census. ## BROWN FAMILY HISTORY

The Brown relationship trace their ancestry to Joseph Brown, whose wife was Hannah M'Afferty, which are our _____ great grandparents. They lived a few years in Bath County, Virginia on the Bull Pasture, then removed and settled on land which was owned for years by the Mann family in the 1900's, near Edray. In the 1900's you could see some fruit trees and a fine spring that indicated the spot where they lived, about three-fourths of a mile east of the Mann residence. Mr. Brown died a few years after settling here, but was survived by his widow for many years. She became blind, and remained so for twenty years. A few years before her decease, Mrs. Brown recovered her sight as quickly as she had lost it, and could count chickens and geese at forty yards away.

Joseph and Hannah Brown were the parents of five daughters and three sons:

1. Rachel Brown - married William Brock
2. Polly Brown - never married, lived at the old home
3. Hannah Brown - never married, lived at the old home
4. Elizabeth Brown - married a Mr. McGuire, and lived in Nicholas County
5. Anna Brown - became the wife of Jeremiah Friel. Their first home was on the Carrich Ridge, then afterwards they lived on the Greenbrier River.
  1. Joseph Friel - married 1 Nov. 1823 to Jane McCollam
  2. Daniel Friel - married 1 Sept. 1824 to Anna Casebolt
  3. Joseph Friel - married 1 April 1834 to Mary Sharp

8. Josiah Brown - the eldest son of Joseph and Hannah Brown, was born 22 June 1777, his will is on record at the Pocahontas County Court House. Married 12 Sept. 1801 to Jane "Jennie" Vaddell, minister John Pinnel, witnesses John and James daughter of Alexander Vaddell and Eleanor Reusch. See Vaddell and Rausch family history.
Josiah and Jennie are our _____ great grandparents.
They settled on the western section of the Brown homestead.
They are buried at the William Sharp Cem. near intersection of Fairview and Back Mountain road.

Josiah received land grants:
133 acres on the Waters of Elk River in 1827
132 acres at Indian Draft in 1828

In the War of 1812 Josiah Brown was drafted for service at Norfolk, Virginia. John Brown a younger brother, being unmarried, volunteered in his brother's place and was accepted, and was ordered to report for service at Warm Springs, Virginia. John seems to have been a very religious youth. On the evening before his departure for the seat of the war, he came over to his brother Josiah's to bid them all farewell and have one more season of prayer and supplication. Then as he went away over the fields he was heard singing, "When I can read my title clear." This was the last he was ever seen or heard of by his brother Josiah's family, as he never came back from the war.

The history of Josiah Brown was one of the humble toil and self-sacrifice for the good of his family. In the course of his life he endured great personal suffering and afflictions. He was bitten twice by rattlesnakes when in the ranges looking for his stock. Once he was with his neighbor, William Sharp, who cared for him and helped him home. The second time he was alone, and it is believed he saved his life by putting his lips to the punctures and sucking out the poison. Finally, a strange sore appeared in the corner of one of his eyes and spread over much of his face. May believed this was the result of the snake bite. It caused him excruciating sufferings, that were greatly intensified by the efforts of sympathizing, well meaning friends to cure him. Sad and pathetic memories of his brother, John Brown, seemed to ever haunting his mind, and the tears seemed to be ever ready to flow at the mention of his name.

Josiah and Hannah were the parents of seven daughters:

1. Hannah Brown - married 6 Dec. 1832 to Jacob Arbaugh, who was from near Mill Point, they first settled on Sugartree Run, a part of the Brown homestead. Shortly after the War of 1812, Jacob Arbaugh and his family moved to Jackson County, Missouri, which he jokingly referred to as his twentieth change of homes since his marriage.

BROWN FAMILY HISTORY

The Brown relationship trace their ancestry to Joseph Brown, whose wife was Hannah M'Afferty, which are our _____ great grandparents. They lived a few years in Bath County, Virginia on the Bull Pasture, then removed and settled on land which was owned for years by the Mann family in the 1900's, near Edray. In the 1900's you could see some fruit trees and a fine spring that indicated the spot where they lived, about three-fourths of a mile east of the Mann residence. Mr. Brown died a few years after settling here, but was survived by his widow for many years. She became blind, and remained so for twenty years. A few years before her decease, Mrs. Brown recovered her sight as quickly as she had lost it, and could count chickens and geese at forty yards away.

Joseph and Hannah Brown were the parents of five daughters and three sons:

1. Rachal Brown - married William Brock
2. Polly Brown - never married, lived at the old home
3. Hannah Brown - never married, lived at the old home
4. Elizabeth Brown - married a Mr. McGuire, and lived in Nicholas County
5. Anna Brown - became the wife of Jeremiah Friel. Their first home was on the Carrich Ridge, then afterwards they lived on the Greenbrier River.
6. John Brown - was a soldier in the War of 1812, and never returned.

Highland Park, Illinois.
July 21, 1919.

Mrs. Hannah (Nora)
Huckeye, W. Va.

Dear Mrs. Anna: As pastor of the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church of Highland Park and visiting minister at the Federal Hospital No. 20 at Fort Sheridan it has been my privilege to call your son, Elmer Bennett, and present the truths of Christ to him. I called on him the first time July 11th. In the course of the conversation it developed that he was a real Christian. I presented a card that the one inclined to him and asked whether he was willing to sign it. He took my pen and signed the card with his own hand. I assured him that we would remember him in our prayers and requested him to pray for himself. He assured me that he would do so.

At this time I had no idea that he was seriously sick. In fact he appeared to be feeling quite well. It was several days before I again visited him and when I did so I found that he had been transferred to ward 11 from ward 22. I immediately called at ward 11 and found that he had been transferred to ward 63. Going to ward 63 I found that he was in a serious condition. In fact when I called on him I found that he was in a semi-comatose condition. I could not talk to him intelligently and called again the following morning. He seemed quite bright at times and I had a very good talk with him. I again called on him in the evening and found him in practically the same condition. Yesterday, Sunday, I had the most satisfactory talk with him. He was satisfied with the presence of his Savior and was very glad to leave me. I had some difficulty to leave him. He showed plainly that he was failing rapidly but I quoted freely from St. John 14th, chapter and other scriptures. These gave him great comfort and strength. Today he was unconscious. And I doubt very much whether he will live through the night.

I thought I should write you these facts as they will be of great comfort to you. If you desire the original word with his own signature I shall send it to you. I prize it very highly but will surrender it to you upon request.

Wishing you the strength and comfort of God in this hour of trial and again assuring you that it is well with your son who offered his all for the good of humanity I am

Respectfully Yours,

Mrs. Hannah Dolan
Rockey, W. Va.

Dear Mrs. Dolan:—As pastor of the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church of Highland Park and visiting minister at the Robert Hospital, No. 28 at Fort Sheridan it has been my privilege to visit your son, Elmer H. Dolan, and present the claims of Christ, as he has. I called on him, the first time July 11th. In the course of the conversation it developed that he was not a Christian. I presented a card that Elmer had loaned to him and asked whether he was willing to sign it. He took my pen and signed the card with his own hand. I assured him that we would remember him in our prayers and requested him to pray for himself. He seemed glad that he would do so.

At this time I had no idea that he was seriously sick. In fact he appeared to be feeling quite well. He was several days before I again visited him and when I did so I found that he had been transferred to ward 11 from ward 55. I immediately called at ward 11 and found that he had been transferred to ward 55. Going to ward 55 I found that he was in a serious condition. In fact when I called on him I found that he was in a serious condition. I could not talk to him intelligently and called again the following morning. He seemed quite bright at times and I had a very good talk with him. I again called on him in the evening and found him to be practically the same condition. Mrs. Lillian Shelton, aged about 70 years, was found dead in bed at her home on Eagle Creek near Rockyview on Thursday morning, March 24, 1932. On Tuesday she had been in Marlinton for medicine for an attack of influenza. It is presumed that pneumonia caused her death. She died by burial in the Spring Hill cemetery and was buried in the family plot at the Rockman graveyard, near Millport. The funeral was conducted by Rev. O. N. Wiley. Mrs. Shelton was a daughter of Thomas Shelton. Her mother's maiden name was Mary Ann Burgess. The husband, Arthur Shelton, died several years ago.

DIED

Mrs. Hannah E. Shelton died at her home at Rockyview, December 22, 1931, aged 57 years. This aged woman was the widow of the late Thomas Shelton, and the last member of the family of Arch Burgess and his wife, Elizabeth McNear Burgess. Her only brother, Paul Burgess, died twenty years ago. She is survived by two children, Miss Lillian Shelton and Arch Shelton. For many years Mrs. Burgess had been a practicing Christian, a member of the M. E. Church, burial at the Rockman graveyard, near Millport, the service being conducted by Rev. H. H. Hays.

The Burgess name has been spelled different ways over the past two hundred years - Boggess, Boggosa, Burgis, and Burgess. All information used has been taken from Historical Sketches of Pocahontas County by V.T. Price, 1901, Pocahontas County Clerk's office records: marriage, land, births, deaths. Same for Bath County.

For the past two hundred years the Burgess name has been a familiar one in Pocahontas County. The first Burgess, John Burgess, I, (our _____ great grandfather), was a native of Ireland. He was a weaver by occupation and before the year 1755 settled near Albany, New York, where he diligently plied his vocation. It is more than probable that his loom wove the blanket which his son, John Burgess, II, used in the Revolutionary War, and some of the neighbor soldiers were clothed in material prepared by his industrious hands.

The name of Jobo Burgess's wife or her family are not remembered. There were four daughters and two sons:

1. daughter -
2. daughter - married a Kelley in state of New York
3. daughter - married a Kelley in state of New York
4. Elizabeth Burgess - moved to Pocahontas County with her brother, John and his family. She married William Young from Pocahontas County.
5. James (or Wright) Burgess - Became a preacher in the Congregational Church, and settled in Kentucky, among the pioneer ministers of that region.
6. Joho Burgess, II - our _____ great grandfather. See next page for his family history

John Burgess, II, born at least 1755 near Albany, New York. He claimed to have been a Revolutionary War soldier and served in the artillery, and was one of the first to enlist and the last to be disbanded of the New York Continental Troops. While we have in hand no positive information to this effect, yet there is much reason for believing that John Burgess was at the surrender of General Burgoyne.

John Burgess married a Miss Kelley, of New York, and soon after the Revolutionary War they moved to Harrisonburg, Virginia. Later about 1798 John and his family settled in Pocahontas County. When his daughter Nancy married in 1811 to William Mayse, on her marriage bond, it lists her father as moving to Ohio and her brother John Burgess, III giving permission for her to marry. I have no proof as of yet but I believe that he may have settled in Gallia County, Ohio. Gallia County was set aside and land was given to men who had been in the Revolutionary War.

#1,2,3,4,5 DAUGHTERS NAMES UNKNOWN

- #6. Mary Burgess - married her cousin, 25 Feb. 1812 to James Young. The minister was Christopher Frya. They settled in Augusta County.
- #7. Nancy Burgess - married June 1811 to William Mayse, the minister was Samuel Kannari. John Burgess and his first wife, Sarah were witnesses. John gave permission for Nancy to marry. Their marriage was recorded in Augusta County. They settled in Mill Point, West Virginia. He was among the first blacksmiths to strike sparks in that vicinity.
- #8. Jana Burgess - married 27 Nov. 1815 to Thomas Armstrong, the minister was Wright Burgess, (Wright the minister) was probably her uncle. Jana and Thomas lived near Churchville, Virginia.
- #9. Hampton Burgess - went to Ohio in early manhood, married a Miss Smith and settled in that state.
- #10. Nathan Burgess - married 30 Aug. 1803 to Martha Kinnison, the minister was John Pinnell, the marriage was recorded in Bath County. She was the daughter of Charles Kinnison, the pioneer. They settled on lands that were later owned by the Payne family in the 1900's. Nathan Burgess was a skillful gunsmith. Late in the 18th and 19th century, many of the hunters were supplied by him with rifles. Some of them were used for military service. Several of the guns were reputed to be some of the most accurate in this county.
- #11. John Burgess, III, nur _____ great grandfather. See next page for his family history.

Jobe Burgess, III, was born near Albany, New York in 1778. He came to Harrisburg, Virginia with his parents and family when he was a mere child. (As of now there is no information as to where his brothers and sisters were born). From Harrisburg, his family came to the Little Levels area in 1798.

He was a carpenter by occupation. For many years he made most of the coffins that were used in the lower half of Pocahontas County. He did the carpenter work on the dwelling occupied for many years by the late George W. Poage.

In 1803 he received 100 acres in a land grant, on Locust Creek. See Sims Land Grant Book, page 124.

John Burgess, III, married twice.
His second wife was our _____ great grandmother.

First wife - 8 March 1803 to Sarah "Susan" Casebolt, the minister was John Pinnell, the marriage was recorded at Bath County, witnesses were Griffith Eveos and Asebel Casebolt. She may have been the daughter of Barbary and Henry Casebolt. John and Susan lived near Mill Point.

John Burgess, III was drafted into the military service during the War of 1812, but owing to the critical state of his wife Susan's health, he was permitted to put in a substitute, and remain with his wife and family. (The substitute is not known as of now). He thus escaped the suffering privation which caused the death of many of the mountain people during the notable defense of Norfolk vicinity that was planned to shield Richmond from British invasion and depredation. Susan soon died about 1813.

After her death, John Burgess, III moved to the mountain farm west of the head of Swago Creek. In 1981 Pocahontas County History it states "John Burgess owned over 1,339 acres on the head waters of Williams River".

*** Second wife - 27 July 1820 to Hannah McVair, the minister was Joeliah Cole, and the marriage was recorded at Augusta County Courthouse. She was the daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth McVair, from the vicinity of Churchville, Virginia. The McVairs were pioneers from Pennsylvania. The name was spelled different ways: McNara, McNeer, McAcare, McNaire. See McVair family history, PAGE

As of now there is no information as to which of Jobe's children belonged to Susan or Hannah, other than what David Burgess told to Mr. McNeel in the late 1800's. I will list the children as David did:

1. John Burgees, IV -

2. James Burgess -

3. Mary Burgess - In the 1850 census there is a Martha A. Burgess, age 26 living in the same household as David M. Burgess and Sarah E. Burgeen. Sometimes people called Mary - Martha or Martha. She may have been born about 1824, making her from the second marriage and not from the first marriage. In 1850, 1860, and 1870 census Mary or Martha is living with her brother David Burgess.

4. H. Archibald Burgess - born 1813, died
Married 25 March 1833 to Elizabeth Ann McNeil, born 31 Sept. 1799, died 16 Dec. 1855, age 55 y, 3 m, 17 d. They are both buried at Ruckman Cem. near Mill Point. Elizabeth was a daughter of David and Elizabeth McNeil.

1. Paul D. Burgess - born 22 Feb. 1836, died 23 Nov. 1909, Ruckman Cem. age 73, never married. Person giving information at Court house was Hannah E. Burgess.

2. Martha A. Burgess - born 1835, died 1859, never married

8. Alvin W. Rogers -

9. Newton C. Rogers - born 1854 (grandfather to Don Rogers of Marlinton).

10. Ellen Rogers - born 1866

David M. Burgess - born 1822, died .
 Married Mary Elizabeth Kellison on 24 Dec. 1868. She was the daughter of Jacob S. Kellison and Sarah A. Morrison. See Kellison and Morrison family history.

Mary was born about 1852, she was 16 when she married.
 David was born about 1822, and was 46 when he married.

It is believed that David and Mary are buried at the headwaters of Williams River (on property now owned by Junior Jackson), as of yet I have not located their graves, or know when they died. I was also told by Ivan VanReenan that his father buried both David and Mary in the White's Chapel Cemetery.

David Burgess was appointed by the Pochontas County Court to serve in the Civil War, Home Guards. David Burgess was a farmer. He and his wife lived at the Beaver Dam on Williams River. David Burgess bought and sold great amounts of land.

The following article was taken from The West Virginia Heritage Encyclopedia, Vol. 3, page 46. Please note that his last name was misspelled in the article. "On the 31 Day of July 1863 David M. Burgess along with four other men were appointed to divide Pochontas County up into townships. They were divided up from being called District 1,2,3,4 to Lincoln, Meade, Grant, Union but after the Civil War they were changed to Edray, Huntersville, Little Levels, and Green Bank Districts.

CALLISON FAMILY HISTORY

James Callison, Sr. was born probably in Northern Ireland, 1739, he died 1808, his will date 15 Nov. 1807, proved February Court 1808, Granger Co. Tennessee. He was a member of Society of Friends (Quakers). He did not have to serve in the Revolutionary War because of his religion. He first lived on Truett Run, Greeshrier County, (later called Pocahontas County). He later moved to Granger Co. Tennessee with his wife. The land that James Callison, Sr. owned, now in the hands of Joel Callison which will be passed on to his sons.

James Callison, Sr. was first married to Mary Callison (no relation) daughter of James and Isabelle Callison of Augusta Co. Virginia. They were our _____ great grandparents.

Second wife : 17 July 1800 to Elizabeth Young.

James' father was Anthony Callison of Ireland, born about 1709, died about 1779 Ireland.

James' mother was Abigail Vethereld born about 1710, died about 1779 Ireland.

In "Historical Sketches" by Price and "History of Pocahontas County 1981" Elizabeth Jesse Callison is not mentioned. Just because she is not mentioned does not mean that she was not a member. "Historical Sketches" was first written in 1901 and I am sure that who ever gave information on the family history could have forgotten about Elizabeth. See also "History of Pocahontas County, 1981" page 247-249.

CASELL FAMILY HISTORY

Jacob Cassell, Sr. ancestor of the numerous relationship of that name was a native of Pendleton County. He was born Feb. 1786, died 1 Jan. 1875. He married 18 Feb. 1805 in Bath County to Nancy McGlaughlin. The witnesses were John McGlaughlin (her brother) and James Wiley.

After living several years in Bath County, he bought land on Greenbrier River, three miles west of Green Bank, now known as the Cassell fording. Here he settled and became a well known citizen of the county

Jacob Cassell, Sr. the founder of the Cassell family in upper Pocahontas County, was a person of remarkable muscular strength and agility. He was passionately industrious, and even in extreme old age never satisfied without something useful to do. He and his family have done very much in developing that part of the county where he resided. In his attire he was very neat and particular, and a perfect gentleman. His personal influence and example were for fair dealing, strict integrity, and pure morals. He lived to be ninety-two years of age.

Mrs. Cassell died several years before her husband. Her death was occasioned by a nasal hemorrhage, brought on by over exertion in crossing a very high rail fence

1. Nancy Cassell - married 2 Nov. 1843 to Allen T. Galford, and lived on the Greenbrier River near the mouth of Deer Creek
See Galford family history for their children
2. Mary Jane Cassell - married 9 June 1853 to Jacob Wilfong, when last heard of, they were in Minnesota.
3. James Cassell - died 17 May 1882 age 65. Married Margaret Ann Swink, of Rockbridge County, Va. they settled on the Greenbrier homestead
4. Jacob Cassell, Jr. - Married Nancy Sharp, daughter of William Sharp, near Verdant Valley, below Fairview They later settled in Illinois.
5. John Cassell - Married Sally Curry and moved west
6. William Cassell - settled on Back Alleghany where he spent the remainder of his life-- he was eight-two when he died.
Married twice:
#1 - 12 Mar. 1839 to Matilda Wanless, daughter of William Wanless
and Nancy Wilson.
#2 - 11 July 1850 to Nancy Collins.
7. Samuel Cassell - Married Mary Eliza Valentine Tomlinson, of Augusta County, Virginia. They lived for a while on the Greenbrier homestead, then on Back Alleghany care. But when trout caught under these conditions are every one is a large one. I was angling that day—I was taking those fish.

The hook is carried swiftly up and a foot or so below a big rakish body will rise to the surface and take it in as it floats.

Under these circumstances a trout will look like a six-inch. If it is a fly the trout is on the bank in the fraction of a second. If it takes its bosom a anucleant and non-irritating worm, the line cuts strange loops in the swirling water and the fish is in a agony of uncertainty and doubt as to where to strike.

Sometimes in these deep swirling rapids the trout comes and refuses the bait, and you just make out its outlines by a red on its sides as though striking through a twisted glass.

In the spring trout like to frequent the riffles where the water runs swiftly down and yet affords sufficient depth to cover them. Under these circumstances they may be taken with a short line and line, for the swirling water ruffles the surface and obscures the view.

Then you see a wonderful power.

The stream may be rushing with the speed of a mill race, and it would seem that the very bubbles on the bottom would be rolled from their places, and the trout seems never to move in to maintain its motionless position against the current. It is as if it is lying on the bottom or is moving propellers which cannot see.

When a big bonidar is found in the stream or a rack haarp it becomes an abiding place for trout and the cover it affords a variety of novice renders such places very dangerous to fish. Each place soon become "fished

Obituary.

After a lingering and painful illness of some weeks, Mrs. Nancy Galford departed this life at the home of her son, Brown Galford, near the town of Cass. She was a daughter of Jacob Cassell, a pioneer of the upper Greenbrier at Cassell's Ford, and widow of the late Allen Galford, Esq. The most of her married life was passed at the old homestead near which the town of Cass now stands.

Her birth date was April 13, 1819, and she died May 13, 1903. One son, Brown Galford, three daughters, Mrs. Dallas McLaughlin, Mrs. George Tacey and Mrs. David McNeire, thirty grandchildren and several great-grandchildren, survive her.

She was received into the pale of the Presbyterian church, by Rev. Wm. T. Price about 13 years ago, at McLaughlin chapel, and the incident is recalled by him as one of the most touching and impressive in the course of his ministerial service. Friends and neighbors heartily testify that her christian deportment was sincere and consistent.

The memorial services were conducted at the McLaughlin Chapel by Rev. J. W. McNeel and the undersigned who preached the sermon for the occasion by the request of the family. Husband and wife now rest side by side at the old homestead, the scene of their mutual toils and endeavors, for so many years.

H. M. McLaughlin.

TO THE HILL COUNTRY

A Visit to The Hills of Judea

Notes Along The Route by The Progressive Pilgrim.

Soon after leaving the train from Buckeye, returning from my Stone Foot Log excursion and wondering when the next hymeneal event would transpire I met Samuel P. Landess on the walk opposite the Bank, upon explaining my pleasure at seeing him so nicely spruced up, he modestly inquired if I felt myself able to make a trip to the Hills, as far as Rev. G. S. Welford's; on the 5th of May, where I would see when I got there what might be up. I caught on for a wonder, and another trip emerged to view and whoever reads this will find out that what it all came to. Squire Koe was so kind as to furnish a conveyance on Monday 4th of May. Early in the afternoon he and his daughter Willatta drove up to the Inframonte gate, and she and I took charge of the team and set out for the Hills via Huntersville.

At Spice Island our attention was called to a beautiful hemlock bush growing on the dead and decayed branch of a sycamore tree hanging over the water, ere long the branch will fall off and carry the beautiful young tree with it into the flood and be carried away.

This seems to illustrate the transitory and unsafe basis on which human hopes may be placed when we look for happiness only in changing and transitory things so soon to be borne away by the stream of time.
